Approval of Minutes
The committee and community members in attendance gave their input of our Family Night. We also reviewed the evaluations from those in attendance. The tentative date for next year's Family Night is 03/14/23 and location TBD. Ideas for possible events: Pow Wow, Dance(ers), Drum group, MC; Music; Local Agencies; Traditional games.	FAMILY NIGHT
Current enrollment of students in the program is 513 at time of today's meeting. The date for the Annual Native American Youth Conference (NAYC) at Fresno State will be on Saturday, November 4, 2023 for grades 6-12. The committee's hopes are to focus this next school year on events such as: college readiness; Fall/Spring carnival family event; pow wow event; focus on Indians today in business, art, culture. From a resource standpoint, the community would like to see a designated Native American Indian in the following areas: Counselor, program director, community advisory, etc. to support students.	TITLE VI PROGRAM UPDATES
This is the last PAC meeting for the 22-23 school year. The committee has served their 2 year terms and elections for new committee members will be held at the first meeting in September for the 23-24 school year. Mr. Aliason thanked everyone for attending the meeting. Meeting was adjourned at 7:00 PM	Adjournment
